9: Yamasaki--233 N-5 (1896-1897) 1900 Formosan Aborigines
292

The largest beast of prey is a black bear (Ursus Formosanus Sw.), which is close to the Japanese Kuma (Ursus Japonicus Schl.). In one village on the upper reaches of the Dakusui-kei I saw a chief wearing a cap made of the neck-piece of this bear.